

THE 2021 TACP EXPLAINED

The Tennis Anti-Corruption Program (TACP) protects the integrity of the sport and protects you against corruption and betting-related offences. To read the full TACP rules, visit www.itia.tennis

As a coach you are covered by the TACP and will remain covered for two years following the last event you received accreditation to.

It is your responsibility to be aware of and comply with the rules:

BETTING

You cannot bet on any tennis event or assist others to do so.

Betting companies must not sponsor, employ or provide any other benefits to you in exchange for yours or your player's services.

MATCH FIXING

Do not ask or help any player to fix the outcome or any aspect of a tennis event (this includes spot fixing of points, games or sets or attempting to manipulate the draw in any way).

INSIDE INFORMATION

Do not share non-public, sensitive information about a tennis event or a player for betting purposes with anyone.

WILD CARDS

Do not accept or give money or any form of compensation in exchange for a wild card on behalf of or for the benefit of a player, whether or not the player has knowledge of your actions.

If you break the rules you could face a lifetime ban from tennis and a maximum fine of $250,000.

To help protect our sport you must:

REPORT

any knowledge or suspicions of corruption to the ITIA.

INFORM

the ITIA as soon as possible if you receive a potentially corrupt approach.

COOPERATE

fully with ITIA investigations if asked to do so.

For further information, to report corrupt activity or if you have any questions download the ITIA app or contact us using the links below:
