Three Thai match officials provisionally suspended by independent Anti-Corruption Hearing Officer

Thai chair umpires Anucha Tongplew, Apisit Promchai and Chitchai Srililai have been provisionally suspended from officiating in or attending any professional tennis events, by independent anti-corruption Hearing Officer Charles Hollander QC.

The suspensions apply with immediate effect and will remain in place until the conclusion of disciplinary proceedings against the three officials into alleged breaches of the Tennis Anti-Corruption Program.

The provisional suspensions follow the completion of investigations carried out by the Tennis Integrity Unit.
